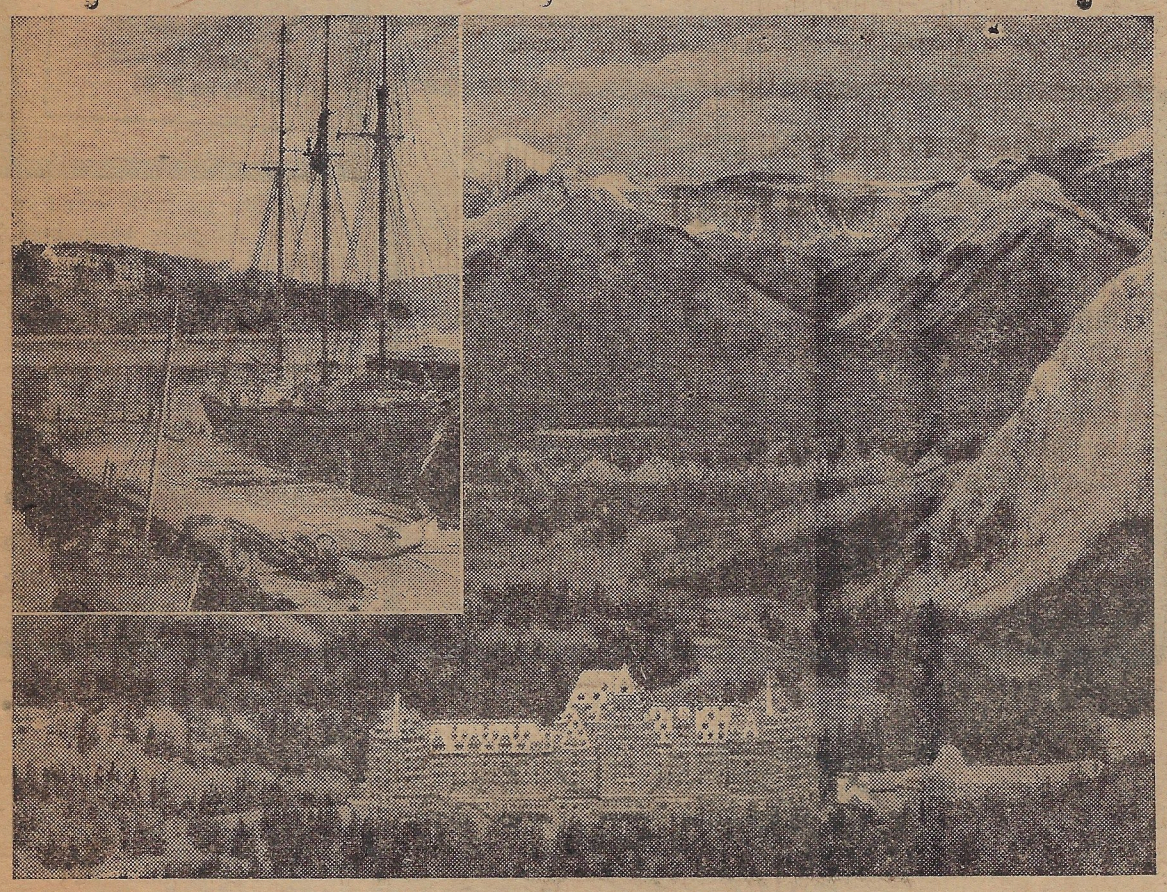
VACATION PARADISE: The Seashore or the Mountains



WHAT IS YOUR IDEA of a summer vacation paradise? You name it and Canada can supply it. Golf, swimming, deep-sea fishing, sailing—Canada can fulfil the wants of the most idealistic vacationer. Shown here are two typical Canadian summer scenes depicting two widely separated playgrounds. Mile-high Banff Springs Hotel, cradled in the Bow Valley of the Canadian Rockies is just as near or as far the the idyllic sea-shore setting showing Digby Pines Hotel at Digby. N.S. Summer resorts across Canada are now laying plans to handle thousands of Canadians who subscribe to the theory "See Canada First."

Two Candidates Contest Council Seat In Division Number One

BOYLE—George Hague of Paxson and Irwin Botten of Boyle were officially nominated on Saturday, April 18 to run for the council seat left vacant by the death of the late Councillor Parsons..

Mr. Parsons' term would have expired in March of 1954, so the successful candidate in this bye-election will have to seek re-election again at that time. The Division therefore has eleven months.

From nomination day until election day is a statutory period of four weeks, so the election will be held on Saturday, May 16th. The last election in this division took place in March, 1951, at which time the late Mr. Parsons defeated the then sitting member, Fred Olson, present candidate George Hague, and Moke Krumpic.

Mr. Hague is a successful farmer living nine miles west and north of Boyle, in the Flat Lake district. He has served on the school board and at present is a member of the hospital board. Mr. and Mrs. Hague have two daughters, Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Sumner, who also live in the Flat Lake district, and a son, Bud, at home.

Like the Hagues, the Botten family are pioneers in the district. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Botten live two miles north and 1½ miles west of Boyle, in their modern home with a married son, Lawrence, and Allan.

Home And Contents Destroyed By Fire

EGG LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Damase Bourassa had the misfortune to have their home destroyed by fire on Tuesday, April 14. They were not at home and nothing could be saved. Luckily, the neighbors saw the smoke and went to try and save something. The house was too far gone, but at least they prevented the fire from destroying the other buildings.

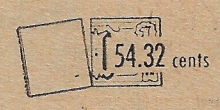
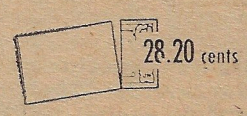
Where does the money go?

At times most of us have looked at purse, wallet or bank-book, and wondered: "Where does the money go?"

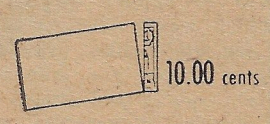
Each year we at Imperial add up the company's bills to see what happened to the money we received in the previous 12 months for the gasoline, fuel oil and other products we sell. Here's where each dollar of Imperial's 1952 income went:



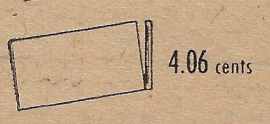
CRUDE OIL and other raw materials we bought, plus freight, took more than half of each dollar.



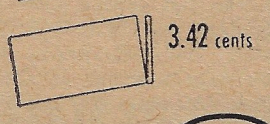
OPERATING expenses took more than 28 cents. This was the cost of searching for and producing crude oil, and of manufacturing and marketing the hundreds of products we supplied for thousands of uses. Throughout the year high quality products were made available where and when you needed them.



TAXES to provincial and federal governments took 10 cents. And this did not include gasoline tax, which—depending on where you live—took from 24 to 36 cents out of every dollar you spent for standard grade gasoline.



DIVIDENDS paid to shareholders for use of plants and equipment amounted to 4.06 cents.



TO REPLACE worn out equipment and to make sure that we can supply your needs in the future 3.42 cents was put back into the business.

"What would you call a perfect citizen?"

"A man who feels like singing the National Athem when making out his income-tax return."

Second Sailor: "It was perfect. Why, if it wasn't for that up-and-down motion I wouldn't have known I was on the ocean."

Struck by Her Feminine Charm

New York paper: "The girl put up a plucky fight and in the end the bandit was overpowered."

Probably hit him with her vanity case and it flew open."

Short Sermons

A famous preacher once remarked to his congregation that every blade of grass was a sermon.

A few days later he was engaged in mowing his lawn, when a witty member passed by, and remarked, "That's right, doctor, cut your sermons short."

Poorly Timed

Jones suggested to his wife that they go over to the neighbor'e house and watch the baseball game on television. For three hours they watched the game, then sat through a wrestling match for another hour. Finally, Mrs. Jones said:

"Harry, don't you think it's about time?"

'Say," interrupted her husband, "did you come over here to jabber or to watch television?"

By Way of Verification

"You would scarcely think it," we said, "but Henry Ford has built to date more than 15,000,000 cars."

"I can well believe it," snarled J. Fuller Gloom, the hater of his species, "for I have jumped out of the way of the most of them."

Request

The second course of the table d'hote was being served, "What is this leathery stuff?" demanded the corpulent diner.

"That sir, is a filet of sole," replied the waiter.

"Take it away," said the diner, and see if you can't get me a nice tender piece of upper, with the buttons removed."

One Advantage

"I'm glad my wife is built long and thin, sorter like a shoe string, as you might say," stated Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge.

"Why?" inquired an acquaintance.

"Well, she don't shade the corn while she's ahoeing of it like a fat woman would."

Forewarned

"I desire to ask your daughter to be my wife," said the young man.

"Well don't get me mixed up in it," said the father. "If you don't get along together I don't want you to say it was my fault."

Out of the Rut

"Remember, darling, you won't always be a junior clerk in a moldy old office."

"That's a fact! I've already got a week's notice."

Picayune Debate

The Opposition in Parliament is getting rather hard-pressed to find something interesting to talk about when they waste hours of the time of Parliament discussing the transfer of a Canadian National Hotel Manager from Winnipeg to Brandon. They have also carried this matter into the Railway Committee, and gave an amusing but not very edifying exhibition recently.

Donald Gordon, President of the Canadian National Railways, was called before the Committee and questioned as to why the transfer was made. J. M. Macdonald, PC Member for Toronto-Greenwood, and E. D. Fulton, PC Member for Kamloops, gave a cordid exhibition of what they consider their duties as members of Parliament. Their questioning of Donald Gordon was impertinent and insulting, and although Mr. Gordon could hardly be blamed for being annoyed, there was no reason for him to lose his temper and act like a spoiled child.

Parliament will have to sit for twelve months and then not be able to do the business of the country if they are to be held up by the Opposition for days listening to complaints so picayunish to the country's economy as the transfer of a hotel employee.

Busy Bees

How many bee-hours of labor go into the production of one pound of honey?

Bee experts have been trying to find the answer to this question for almost half a century and all of them come up with a different answer. One father and son team, after 40 years of observing bees under varying conditions, credit each working field bee with an average day of eight hours gathering honey at the rate of 20 flowers per minute and 20 minutes an average trip.

Another authority, reports C-I-L Agricultural News, rates bee activity slightly lower. He states that a bee often visits 10 to 20 flowers per minute and makes only 10 trips a day. If it were possible for a single bee to gather all the nectar for one pound of honey at this rate, it would have to work 365 days a year for more than eight years.

Bees have been observed gathering honey at all hours. Some have been seen leaving clover fields at 9:22 p.m. Others worked basswood from 4 to 5 a.m.—just before sunrise. From other similar observations it was concluded that a bee's working hours were determined by the time of day flowers surrounding the hive yielded the most nectar. Some yield most of the day while others, such as buckwheat, only part of the day. Some blossoms close early in the afternoon and do not open until late in the morning.

Sugar content of nectar varies in different kinds of flowers or in flowers of the same species from season to season or even in the same flower from day to day.

The distance of the source of nectar from the hive is another important factor in honey production. Bees will go eight miles if they cannot find nectar nearer home. But because of lost time and reduced load, this is not profitable and bees prefer to work a source of nectar with a low sugar content near the hive before they will fly to flowers with a sweet nectar much farther away.

Men Of Valor

He was a hunch-backed, dwarfish man, with a frail body, but he possessed one of the profoundest mathematical minds of all time. Arriving in steerage from Germany, Charles P. Steinmetz came to be known as "the wizard of Schenectady." He was a genius in electrical theory and research at the General Electric Company. When Harvard bestowed an honorary degree upon him, it was said, "He is the foremost electrical engineer of the world."

Notes and Comment

Farm deliveries in the prairie provinces from August 1 1952, to January 26 totalled 433.5 million bushels, 279.9 million bushels of which was wheat and 153.6 million coarse grains. During the same period last year marketing totalled 367.6 million, with wheat accounting for 249.1 million and coarse grains 118.5 million bushels.

Teaching, A Job Or A Career?

By W. E. FINBOW, Department of Education

Everyone likes to feel that he is needed. Everyone likes to feel that his job is worth-while. The difference between putting in time and filling a need is the difference between a job and a career. The need for teachers today is very great; and the rewards of teaching—if you are the right sort of person—are very near and warm and real.

Teaching is a big job. Not everyone can measure up to it. You need to be healthy, both physically and mentally. You should be at least a little brighter than average. You need self-control and lots of it. You should have a wide-awake interest in what is going on in the world. You should be enthusiastic, and be able to rouse enthusiasm in others. You need to be able to stick with a problem. Above all, you must have integrity, your students must know that your thinking is honest, and your decisions fair. If you feel that you possess most of these qualities, there is a good future. a very good future, waiting for you in the teaching profession.

Teaching, like every other worth-while profession, involves a certain amount of grief. You must be able to adjust your behaviour to the needs of a group of young people, no two of whom are alike in any mental or emotional characteristic. And you will have to adapt yourself to the very special needs of those unhappily adjusted children who are to be found, a few, in every classroom. The problems that a teacher must solve, then, are delicate, difficult and highly complex problems. And sometimes, especially for the beginning teacher, the psysical environment in which these delicate problems must be solved can be anything but an encouraging one.

Teaching is difficult work, but its compensations are unique. We have to think of money, of course. There was a time when teachers were poorly paid; nowadays you will receive a competent income, an income more secure and certain than that of any other profession. If you wish to engage in further study and better your qualifications, or enter some field of specialization—and for teachers there is every opportunity to do so—your income will increase accordingly. In education, the field is wide open to talent.

More important is the personal satisfaction that accrues to those who work constantly with children. To watch them grow, in competence and alertness and sensitivity, from day to day, and year to year, to see them enter every walk of life and "make good" and know that you have had a hand in the process—this is a very special kind of reward, and one that is offered by no other occupation besides teaching. Such a reward spells success in the very best meaning of the word.

Alberta needs teachers. We need workers especially in that area of teaching which requires the highest degree of competence — the elementary school. When you think about a career, think very earnestly about teaching. It may be your finest opportunity.

Go East, Young Salmon!

(From Toronto Saturday Night)

An experiment with wide biological as well as economic interest is currently being conducted in Alberta. Sockeye salmon, those peculiar fish with the stubborn spawning habits, were introduced into the St. Mary Reservoir in the southern part of the Province last July. Some 80,000 sockeye salmon fingerlings were hatched in the Provincial Government Fish Hatchery of the Department of Lands and Forestry at Calgary. They were then piped into the Reservoir from metal tanks in which they made the journey from the Hatchery.

The biologically interesting fact is that the sockeye salmon of the Pacific Ocean lives most of its life in salt water and enters fresh water only to spawn and die. The Fisheries Branch feels, however, that the fish can and will adapt itself to an exclusively fresh water existence.

The fingerlings have grown from eggs received from the Montana State Fisheries Branch. They were developed to the fingerling stage and then planted in the Reservoir instead of being allowed to mature at a rearing station, the apparent custom of men who know the ways of fish.

If the salmon experiment works, more fingerlings will be planted in other Alberta lakes. This winter 10,000 of them will be studied at the Calgary Hatchery. The sockeye salmon—whose reputation as a game fish is well established — may be one more in Alberta's long list of tourist attractions.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH by Russ Arnold

Voice of the People

JOHN BARLECORN'S BUDGET

A good many people go to jail, half or more of them for offenses against the liquor act, and quite a proportion of the rest for offenses committed when partially or wholly under the influence of liquor. Still, the province gets $14 million or so per year profit out of liquor. It is used for roads, bridges, hospitals and wonder of wonders, for schools. There is even a small item, $75,000 for an institution to reform alcholics. Next thing we'll endow a few churches and missions with whisky money. Perhaps, the whole $14 million should be user for such purposes.

The provincial government should have a special part of its yearly accounts giving a true account and balance sheet for the loss and gain in liquor. It might read something like this:

Profit
Gross revenue from sale of liquor	$14,000,000
Loss (direct and indirect)
Cost of jails (pro rata of prisoners(.....	$2,420,037
Cost of police (pro rata of prisoners)	1,640,184
Property losses due to crime	1,560,629
Care of families of jail inmates	1,380,516
Loss by death (auto accidents, murders, fire, etc.), at $10,00 per person	3,315,487
Medical expenses due to John Barleycorn	1,580,100
Shortended lives due to aforesaid John	2,103,046
Net profit	1
Total	$14,000,000

This shows a net profit on hand of $1.00, a really handsome fund. Perhaps by judicious advertising next year, increased liquor sales would reach this net profit and in a few years, it might be used as a revolvong self-liquidating fund, to be used to start financing a few hotels. (That self-liquidating is really good). Hurrah for John.

CHARACTER ANALYSIS

Judging just by his pictures, Russia's new boss, Georgi Malenkov, is not the Cossack type. His eyes are those of a hunter and marksman. The mouth shows he is a 40-a-day cigarette smoker. I predict in him a man who will start great revolutions and wars by air, without warning.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

First I wish to congratulate you on the wonderful paper which is issued weekly. I want to express my opinion on the awards given to Master Farmers. I would say it is very good to have this. But what gets me is that these people are normal until they get the award.

Once they get this award they feel that there is no one like them and that everybody is just SCRUFF. I wouldn't say this applies to all Master Farmers.

In closing I would give this advice to these Master Farmers: You were just like one of us at one time, so in your good fortune, don't forget the less fortunate.

STRICTLY HONEST.

OLYMPIC MOVE DECRIED

What's this talk about eliminating women from future Olympic competition? They are just as much a part of the pageant as good sportsmanship.

The threshers came to our place on short notice, and caught me unprepared. It was during the time when meat prices were the highest, and, as per usual, my supply was low.

I remembered I had some canned sausage, and my two preschool age grandsons saw me heating the sausage, and asked if they could have some, as they were very fond of it. I replied they would have to wait till the men ate and if any was left they could have some.

During the meal the older of the two pipes up with "Don't you guys eat too much sausage. Granny said we could have some, if there was any left." I'll never know if any of the men heard him. However, no one said anything, and kept on devouring all that was before them. We laugh over it now!

Junior got some sausage.

LETTER TO LOUISA

16-Year-Old Girl Finds New Love Interest When "Steady Joe" Is Away

DEAR LOUISA — I am a girl of sixteen years old, I have been going steady with a very nice young man for two years.

He is well liked and respected by everyone. Joe went away for the winter and I only saw him every month or so. I have been going to school and live in town. I am considered a pretty girl with a swell personality. Because I love dancing and am a popular dancer. I didn't stop going to dances just because Joe wasn't here. I got going with a gang my older brother went with. One of the boys started to pay my way into the dances and ask me to eat supper and go home with him. He is also a very nice fellow, he is employed in the town I live in. He isn't very well acquainted with Joe. I have more or less been going with him for three months. I know he thinks a lot of me. While I've been going with him he has never asked about Joe and I have never told him that I'm supposed to be going steady with Joe. Joe has come home again to stay, so I have tried to settle down again. He recently was told about me going with this other fellow and asked me about it in a very nice way. I didn't deny it. He told me if I was going to continue going with the other fellow he would have to stop coming to see me, he said he feels as if he could never go with another girl. I think a lot of Joe and also like the other fellow very much. When I go with the other fellow I have more fun than when I go with Joe, but I know for a fact people will respect me more if I go with Joe. Could you give me your advice on whether I should tell Joe I don't want to go steady or stick to him? I know it would please my mother if I continued to go with Joe, she doesn't know about this matter.

J.F.

Answer: Your probiem, my dear girl, is as old as the hills. Like millions of girls your own age and before you, you have made the mistake of centering all your attentions on one boy friend. You have mistaken the fancy of youth for the real heart-love of a mature adult and as soon as your boy friend of two years' standing goes away for a while you have found others who are just as attractive to you, and attracted to you as steady Joe.

You were much too young at 14 to start going steady and now at 16 you are still too young to have your dates and attention monopolized by one boy. The world is big and you have still got several years of gay, care-free life ahead of you. Don't make the tragic mistake of getting tied down to one man now and find within a few years that the man who at 14 you thought was your one big romance in life, will be, a few years later replaced in your affections by another.

Enjoy your young life, J.F., while you can and when you are matured in your thinking you will find the right man.

P.S. Listen carefully to your mother's advice as to the boys with whom you keep company, but remember that the choice of a husband will have to be yours and not your mother's.

University Of Alberta To Receive Dr. Orr's Library

EDMONTON—University of Alberta officials revealed recently that the somewhat extensive medical library of the late Dr. Harold Orr of Edmonton had been willed to the University. Dr. Orr had been president of the Canadian Medical Association when he died in December at the age of 63.

The library contains several medical journals complete from 1889 to 1952. The interest shown by Dr. Orr in the University's medical library was always keen and he contributed many journals to it during his lifetime.

Federal Government Won't Tolerate Big Business Price Fixing Combines

OTTAWA—A series of investigations and prosecutions are showing business firms that it may not pay too well to rig up price - fixing agreements. Such agreements when they eliminate competition and thus tend to force the consumer to pay higher prices are illegal under the Combines Investigation Act.

Several large rubber companies pleaded guilty to operating a combine in mechanical goods, belting and similar materials. They face fines ranging up to $10,000. Some of the same and other rubber companies are also alleged to have participated in combines in other types of rubber goods, such as tires and footwear. Further prosecutions are probably coming.

Justice Minister Stuart Garson who administers the Combines Act has announced there will be prosecutions of some manufacturers and dealers in fine paper. The existence of a Combine in that industry was charged in a report presented to Mr. Garson last November by Combines Commissioner T. D. Macdonald, who said the price-fixing arrangement had operated for 17 years.

Combines cases are often the occasions for long battles in the courts. Sometimes the accused get off. Recently the batting average of the prosecutors, operating under Mr. Garson's direction has been high. They secured convictions against match firms in Quebec, baking firms in Western Canada. The match case is under appeal. The rubber case is the second in which the concerns involved decided not to fight. Not long ago glass manufacturers were put on trial in Toronto and pleaded guilty.

Securing a conviction or a plea of guilty involves long and careful study and accumulation of evidence as the fine paper case shows. The investigation took four years. Since the presentation of the report last November, lawyers have been reviewing evidence with a view to laying charges. Up to now it has been decided to prosecute some of the seven manufacturers and 37 dealers alleged to be in the combine.

Even yet, however, the government's lawyers are not sure how many can be proven guilty and so it is not certain that all will be hailed into court.

From 1939 to 1952 Canadian labour income rose from $2,568 to $10,868 million.

SERVE CANADA

Soldiers like those of the airborne infantry are helping to guard Canada, ready to drop into action wherever danger threatens. The young man who joins the Army and has completed his Infantry training may then volunteer to start training for the proud wings of Canada's "Soldiers of the Sky."

AND YOURSELF

How does a man choose a job? He examines the pay; the working conditions; the opportunities for advancement; the financial security. From every one of these aspects an Army career is excellent. And more — no monotony of being stuck for years in one place; pension plans after 20 years service; medical and dental care whenever needed — without regard for cost or time. Opportunities for training and advancement in the Army today are truly outstanding.

IN THE ARMY

Soldiering is a man's life! There are challenges and dangers. But wherever you go, in the Army, you know you can rely on your comrades, trained fighting men who share with you the action of military life. If you think an Army career is for you, enquire about the opportunities for service with the Infantry — the most important men in the Canadian Army.

You are eligible to join the Army if you are 17 to 40 years of age and able to meet Army test requirements. Applicants should bring birth certificates or other proof of age when reporting for interview.

SECOND SECTION TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1953 PAGE NINE

Council Meeting Highlights

LAC LA BICHE—Regular Town Council meeting held on April 21. All councilmen except Councillor M. Perron were in attendance.

During the course of the meeting a new secretary-treasurer, Mr. T. B. Cumming, was appointed.

Approved two building applications and adopted the budget for 1953.

Estimated expenditures for 1953 —$66,000.00 . Mill rate set at fifty (50) mills, plus) two (2) mills for hospitalization (the dollar a day plan). This new rate represents an increase of six mills over 1952. The chief reasons for the increase being the purchase of a fire engine, and the rising costs in general administration.

From 1939 to current fiscal year federal government spending increased from $553 million to an estimated $4,462 million.

Seen And Heard Around Town

Fire Brigade rushing to extinguish a chimney fire at the home of Mrs. I. Tatum.

Chicken Shoots Prove Popular Pastime

LAC LA BICHE—An enthusiastic crowd attended the first, in what was the Fire Brigade hopes will be a series of "chicken shoots".

Marksmanship was good, considering there were several contestants shooting at the same time; and it wasn't long before there were no chickens left. The maximum prize of three chickens was allotted to any one participant, and several went home with their full quota to grace the Sunday dinner table. Others thinking of the money the Fire Brigade could use, donated their winnings back to the Brigade.

The high score was held by the local fire chief, who chalked up 28 out of a possible 30 points.

The proceeds of this venture were very encouraging, netting a clear profit of $73.75, which will be used to buy miscellaneous fire equipment.

The Brigade is hoping to sponsor a few more small shoots, to let the public warm up for the gigantic turkey shoot they plan to hold in the fall—a two or three day affair at least. Sounds like good sport for all is in store.

The committee in charge, including E. Dobson, L. Gregory, J. Williams, R. Stubberfield and J. Hayduck, are to be commended on the well organized affair, especially as regard to safety precautions.

Mr. Gregory, an avid worker of the group, is in for sincere thanks from all the Brigade for financing the chicken shoot. It's spirit like this that really counts.

Members of the Brigade wish the public to know that they are at the service of the community day or night. They would appreciate calls during the hazardous clean-up season, grass fires, or brush fires, and are willing to stand by with equipment should things get out of control. There's plenty of stuff to be cleaned up—now is the time to do it.

Board Of Trade Elects New Slate

LAC LA BICHE—At a recent general meeting of the Lac la Biche Board of Trade a new board of directors was appointed, including the following:

President, H. C. McCaskell; first vice-president, Michael. Hamar; second vice-president, Dr. W. Cadzow; third vice-president, James Stewart; secretary - treasurer, Floyd McMillan; directors, heads of committees: Agriculture, Wm. Hamilton; finance and membership, Tony Varze; public relations, L. G. Hall; liaison officer Town Council, L. Badry; sports, Roy Raines; roads and civic improvement, Tom Lett; health, Dr. A. Brinsmead.

During the course of the meeting the mail service to the south, i.e., Briereville, Goose Lake, Rich Lake, Craigend, was discussed at length.

Mr. Lore, district agriculturist, outlined the project he has in mind for the locality, a milk pasteurizing plant.

Other general matters were discussed, including the rumored matter of the construction of the new hotel.

Next meeting will be held on May 19, 153.

Pretty Bridal At Mission

LAC LA BICHE—A pretty Spring wedding took place at the Lac la Biche Mission, when Miss Evelyn Ann Thomas and Ken Bergeson were united in marriage. The bride, lovely in a gown of white satin and lace, with a floor length evil, carried a buoquet of red and white roses. She was attended by two bridesmaids. Miss Irene Baime, attired in gold satin and lace, and Miss Dorothy Wolstenholme, who wore a mauve gown. Both birdesmaids carried identical colonial bouquets of mixed flowers.

The groom was attended by Ardian Thomas, brother of the bride, and Marvin Kapler.

Miss Louise Badry, dressed in pale yellow, was the flower girl, attended by Erbie Thomas.

A reception was held at the Community Hall, with Mr. M. Baime proposing the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. The reception was followed by a dance in the evening.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Bergeson and son of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Baime and Mr. and Mrs. Albert.

The happy couple will be making their home in Edmonton.

Mrs. S. Hamar, president, reported on the Edmonton Presbytery meeting held at the McDougall Church on March 6. It was the sixth annual meeting attended by 200 ladies. Presidents of groups and other delegates attended.

THE BANKS SERVING YOUR COMMUNITY

Not Taking Advantage Of Housing Act Offers

TORONTO—Communities and builders should take more advantage of provisions of the National Housing Act which encourage home building, Mines Minister Prudham said here.

He outlined some of the act's provisions in a speech to the National House Builders' Association. Mr. Prudham, an Edmonton business man, is a former president of the association.

Not enough advantage was being taken of section 35 of the NHA, Mr. Prudham said. This section provides for the servicing of land with the federal government paying 75 per cent of the cost and the other 25 per cent being provided by the province or the province and municipality.

"If your province is short of served land," he told the builders, "I believe that through your local associations you should endeavor to see that your municipal governments are fully aware of these provisions and urge them to take the initiative by availing themselves of this provision."

Too much of the builder's time was wasted in seeking and promoting development of land. This was the responsibility of local governments.

"All too often," municipalities did not plan far enough ahead. They planned for the current season only and by the time their plans were in operation half the building season was lost.

More builders should also take advantage of another provision of the act which provided insurance against loss of rental revenue for a small premium. This had provided much rental housing in Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg but was less used in other parts of Canada.

Edmonton Area May Get Big Steam-Power Plant

The largest single power project in Alberta, an 80,000-horsepower steam plant, may be built at Lake Wabamum, 35 miles west of Edmonton, Calgary Power Ltd. is looking into the matter.

All the company would say was "we are studying the possibility of constructing a large steam plant near the north end of our system because of the rapidly increasing load in the adjacent area".

Lake Wabamum is the likely site, because of the proximity of both fuel and water and because it is so close to the market.

A huge coal deposit is at or near the surface. It would be strip-mined and burned in the plant. In fact, geologists are of the opinion that the lake basin roughly 30 square miles in area was created by a prehistoric fire which burned out that much of the coal.

The Edmonton - Jasper highway and the main line of the CNR skirt the north shore of the lake for about 10 miles. Edmonton's popular Seba Beach resort is at the west end of the lake.

None of the company's hydro plants on the Bow River generate that much power. Largest is the Spray with 62,000-horsepower although its two associated plants, Three Sisters and Rundle, bring the total for the Spray project to 100,000.

Edmonton now has 80,000 installed horsepower in its steam plant, in two units of 20,000 and one of 40,000 It is putting in another 40,000 horsepower unit. By way of comparison with the Lake Wabumum proposition, the old steam plant beside Calgary's Exhibition Grounds is 14,000 horsepower.

School Plebiscite Carried By Substantial Majority

SEDGEWICK — Preliminary figures on the recent poll held in the Killam School Division indicate that the proprietary electors have approved by a substantial majority the divisional board's debenture by-law to raise $200,000 for new school buildings and facilities. Of 564 ballots cast, 323 were affirmative, 240 negative, and one was spoiled. As a simple majority is all that is necessary on such a plebiscite, it is expected that the divisional board will give the by-law its third and final reading at their next meeting, and application will accordingly be made to the board of public utility commissioners to borrow $70,000. Of the $200,000 needed for the purpose of the program, it is expected that $50,000 will be available from the department of educaiton as a building grant, and the balance of $80,000 will be a low-interest loan from the school borrowing assistance fund.

The money is to be used for a new six-room school at Lougheed and a two-room building at Merna, heating and sewage system at Heisler, sewage at Daysland, as well as the moving and renovation of a rural school at Daysland to provide added classroom accommodation.

The superintendent and the divisional trustee concerned were directed to study the possibility of offering home economics and industrial arts in Alliance during the next school year, as qualified teachers and the needed classroom space now appear available.

The board approved appointment of Allan D. Fell to the staff of Central High School, effective immediately. Mr. Fell replaces Mr. C. A. Jenkins, who returns to his regular assignment as principal of the Killam public school.

Next meeting of the board will be held May 8.
